Two on teens attack charge

By TOM TUIE

TWO youths were granted bail with strict conditions after appearing in court yesterday charged with attacking a teenage girl and her pal.

Darragh Lyons and Jack Cummins, both 18, must obey curfews which will be checked by gardai.

A 17-year-old girl and a male teen were hospitalised after the attack on December 30.

THE SHOW MUST GO ON

EXCLUSIVE by KEN SWEENEY

THE opening show of Dancing with the Stars is in disarray after a late Covid outbreak.

Dancer Emily Barker is isolating after testing positive, while partner Aengus MacGrianna is a close contact.

Love Island star Matthew MacNabb also tested positive ahead of tomorrow's show.

A source said: "Emily going down with Covid's a big blow."
